Types of Name Changes Allowed

American Airlines recognizes multiple categories of name adjustments:

- Minor corrections (up to three characters)
- Full name updates due to marriage, divorce, or legal processes
- Spelling errors or mistyped letters
- Adjusting first, middle, or last names
- Adding or removing middle names
- Modifying initials to full names or vice versa

Every correction follows clear rules so your ticket continues to match government-issued IDs—because accuracy is your boarding pass to a smooth journey.

Minor vs. Major Name Changes: What's the Difference?

Minor Name Corrections

These are small, effortless corrections:

- Typographical errors
- Reversed or swapped letters
- Missing characters
- One or two letters incorrect in first or last name

These changes can often be completed quickly through customer service without major documentation.

Major Name Corrections

A major name update applies when:

- You legally changed your name
- Your current ID no longer matches the ticket
- Marriage or divorce updated your last name
- Significant spelling changes are required

These updates require legal proof, such as:

- Marriage certificate

- Divorce decree
- Court-issued name change document
- Updated government ID

Once verified, American Airlines updates your ticket to mirror your correct identity.

Does American Airlines Charge a Name Change Fee?

The cost depends on the nature of your correction:

Minor Name Fixes

- Usually free or low-cost
- Applies to small spelling adjustments or letter corrections

Major Name Changes

- May require ticket reissue
- Fare difference may apply
- Certain third-party bookings may incur supplier fees

When the name change results from a major legal event, American Airlines may waive fees upon document verification.

Name Changes for Flights Booked Through Travel Agencies or OTAs

If your reservation was made using

- Expedia +1 877 604 1230
- Priceline +1 866 664 9260

You must contact them first. American Airlines cannot override third-party fare rules. Once the agency submits a correction request, AA completes the verification and updates the ticket.

Important Rules to Remember Before Requesting a Name Change

To ensure smooth processing, keep these essential guidelines in mind:

- You cannot transfer your ticket to another person
- First and last name must match exactly with your ID
- Nicknames must be converted to legal names
- Hyphens and spacing must reflect government documents
- Airline security requirements prohibit identity mismatches

Each correction ensures your journey remains secure, simple, and uninterrupted.
